C. Quotation marks (" - - ") are used to denote the exact words of a speaker.

Examples: "It sure is a beauty," said Si.

Freddy suggested," It is time to go home."

"Where shall we go?" asked Wally.

"I think," said Freddy, "we have a problem."

"Stop!" yelled Adam. "I'll call the police."

Study the examples and notice the use of punctuation and capital letters.

Use quotation marks in the following sentences. Remember to check capital letters and punctuation.

- 1. That's what he just said yelled Wally.
- 2. Okay Fries lets get to work said Freddy.
- 3. Theodore commented friends should help each other.
- 4. I know nothing shouted Howie
- 5. What do you want Freddy called out.
- D. A pun is a play on words. A pun-cture is a picture pun.Here are two examples. Fill in the boxes with your punctures.
