

Holes by Louis Sachar

Student Tracking Sheet

Name _____

Place an X in the block of each activity you complete:

Creative Writing

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

Word Study

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

Integrated Studies

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

Grammar

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

Research

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

Creative Writing
Activity 1

What do you think Stanley and Zero will be doing in 20 years time?

Write a brief description of their lives, telling where they live, what their jobs are and how they are adapting to life after Camp Green Lake.

Creative Writing
Activity 2

What else do you think Stanley's father will invent?

Write story about another invention of his and how he developed the idea.

Work through the writing process to produce a published piece.

Holes by Louis Sachar

Integrated Studies Activity 1

When does Stanley begin to display courage in the novel Holes?

List the courageous acts he displayed. What gave him the courage to search for Zero?

Which characters in this novel also demonstrate courage? How do they show this quality?

Integrated Studies Activity 2

Create a colorful drawing of Camp Green Lake.

Write a descriptive paragraph about the camp.

Try to paint a picture with words, so your readers can see the camp in their minds.

Holes by Louis Sachar

Research Activity 3

Research the history of juvenile delinquency.

How are teenagers treated in the judicial system in your country?

Prepare a report on this topic for your class.

Research Activity 4

Are there any homeless people in your province/state?

Research what is being done to help the homeless in the larger centers.

Prepare a report for your class on this topic.

Research Activity 5

Stanley went to a correctional institution in Texas.

Research this state and write a paper for your class which includes a brief history, a list of important sites and a map.